

Question 2:

Design UDP iterative Client Server application to reverse the given input string. An iterative server is the one that deals with one client at a time but never Exit.